NARRATIVE (Continuation)

On 06/11/2019, I was dispatched to enforce a court ordered child pickup, located at [REDACTED] in Bend. I was ordered to remove [REDACTED] from the custody of her mother, [REDACTED], and drop her off to the custody of her father, [REDACTED].

Immediately upon arrival to the [REDACTED] residence, [REDACTED] and I were confronted by [REDACTED] at the front gate. I informed [REDACTED] that I had a court order to remove [REDACTED] from her custody and the property. [REDACTED] attempted multiple times to block me, with her body, as I attempted to walk to the house to look for [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told me I could not be on her property without a warrant and made several threats that she would "do something" to me if I didn't leave.

While I was looking for [REDACTED], [REDACTED] called 911 to report I was on her property illegally. I again told [REDACTED] I had a court order and I warned [REDACTED] not to call 911 again, [REDACTED] called 911 three more times.

Due to the fact that [REDACTED] repeatedly tried to block my path of travel, and dialed 911 after my warning not to do so, I placed her under arrest for the crimes of interfering with a Police Officer and Improper use of 911. As I was attempting to place [REDACTED] under physical custody, she resisted my arrest by pulling her arms away from me, kicking her legs, and twisting her body away from me.

As I was leaving the property, I saw [REDACTED] riding her bike on [REDACTED] road. After several minutes, [REDACTED] was compliant and got into [REDACTED] patrol vehicle and was transported by him ([REDACTED]) to her father house, located at [REDACTED] in Bend. See [REDACTED] supplemental report for details.

I transported [REDACTED] to the Deschutes County Adult. I charged [REDACTED] for interfering, misuse of 911 and resisting arrest.

More detailed report to follow.

Narrative:

On the evening of June 11, 2019 I accompanied Sheriff's Office Deputy, [REDACTED] with a civil "child pickup" order signed earlier that day by Deschutes County Circuit Court. [REDACTED] and I were to pick up [REDACTED] from her mother's ([REDACTED] residence at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was then to be turned over to her father, [REDACTED] who was residing in Bend, OR. Due to numerous prior uncooperative Law Enforcement contacts with [REDACTED] I offered to assist Dep [REDACTED] with the child pick up order.

Upon our first arrival, [REDACTED] drive way was blocked by 2 swinging metal gates. There was a small metal chain that loosely held the otherwise free swinging gates closed. There were no "No Trespassing" signs displayed that I could observe.

As Dep. [REDACTED] and I opened the gate and proceeded to drive up the driveway, we were met 1/2 way by [REDACTED] who was agitated from the onset. Dep. [REDACTED] made first contact with her as I was getting out of my car. I heard [REDACTED] cursing at Dep. [REDACTED] and demanding to see a search warrant. Dep [REDACTED] and I tried to explain to [REDACTED] that we were at her residence due to a court order to pick up [REDACTED] and turn her over to her father. She was told we did not have the authority to override the court order, and she would have to take up her objections with the court.

[REDACTED] continued to curse at us and physically blocked our way with her body during our attempt to approach the house. [REDACTED] approached me and also asked for our warrant and questioned our authority to be on the property. I tried to explain to [REDACTED] the court order signed by a judge that gave us the authority to be there, but [REDACTED] kept asking me the same questions repeatedly. [REDACTED] who was calm compared to [REDACTED], only shrugged his shoulders when I asked him to try and calm [REDACTED] down so that the situation did not escalate further.

Dep. [REDACTED] was finally able to access the house and look for [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told me he believed [REDACTED] was not home and went for a bike ride. He then changed that statement to telling me she might be inside the house. [REDACTED] walked down the driveway to look for [REDACTED] bicycle, but was still not straightforward in telling me whether [REDACTED] was home or not.

I stayed outside with [REDACTED] while Dep. [REDACTED] looked for [REDACTED] inside the house. I heard [REDACTED] screaming obscenities at Dep [REDACTED] the entire time they were inside the house.

NARRATIVE (Continuation)

██████████ had given the court papers to ██████████ who was asking me specific questions about the papers. ██████████ handed me the court papers and I read through them briefly and responded to his questions. ██████████ continued to ask me the same questions that I had just answered however.

When Dep. ██████████ and ██████████ came back outside the house, I was still trying to speak with ██████████ about where ██████████ might have gone. ██████████ continued to scream, curse and held her phone up close to Dep. ██████████ and me, saying she was videoing the incident. I told ██████████ to stay back and not interfere or she would be arrested and taken to jail. ██████████ ignored my warnings and continued her behaviors.

Despite ██████████ continued interference, Dep. ██████████ and I discussed not arresting ██████████ at that time as we felt our priorities were to find ██████████ and take her to her father's house as the court papers instructed. We decided to leave at that point to avoid further conflict with ██████████ hoping the situation would deescalate.

As Dep. ██████████ and I were walking back to our cars, ██████████ told me she was calling 911 for police assistance. I told ██████████ we were the police, and instructed her not to call 911 as the situation was not an emergency. I heard ██████████ speaking to someone and I radioed 911 dispatch and asked if ██████████ had called in on the 911 line. I was told that was affirmative, ██████████ had used the 911 call line.

I warned ██████████ again against using the 911 line for non-emergency calls, and told her she would be arrested if she continued her behavior. ██████████ continued to shout over me, curse and also curse at the 911 operator. ██████████ continually cursed at me using every variance imaginable of the word, "fuck." I told ██████████ if she was videoing our contact, that if she intended to use her video to gain sympathy from someone, I didn't think her language was favorable to her cause.

After Dep. ██████████ and I determined ██████████ was most likely not on the property, we left with the hope of locating her riding her bike in the nearby neighborhood, as ██████████ had claimed.

After leaving the property, I was advised ██████████ was stilling calling dispatch on the 911 line. ██████████ also requested to speak with a watch commander. That request was taken by ██████████. I called ██████████ afterwards and advised him of the circumstances leading up to ██████████ complaint. ██████████ told me he also told ██████████ to not use the 911 line for non-emergency matters.

At one point after leaving the property, I was advised ██████████ had called back in on the non-emergency line regarding this same issue, but soon afterward, I was told ██████████ had again called back on the 911 line with the same non emergency complaint.

After searching the area for ██████████ for awhile, Dep. ██████████ and I met briefly and discussed our response to ██████████ ignoring our orders to not call 911 for non-emergency issues. As our, dispatch and ██████████ warnings were being ignored by ██████████, we decided to return to the residence and arrest ██████████ for Misuse of Emergency Communications System.

NARRATIVE (Continuation)

We returned to the residence and again opened the chained metal gates. [REDACTED] was over at the property adjacent to hers to the west, talking to a neighbor. When we arrived, she walked back over to her house. Dep [REDACTED] was again ahead of me, and as I parked my car and got out, Dep. [REDACTED] was attempting to take [REDACTED] into custody just outside her front door.

[REDACTED] approached me and was complaining to me again to see our warrant, and I instructed him to stand back and not interfere with us arresting [REDACTED]. I saw Dep. [REDACTED] kneeling on top of [REDACTED] who was laying on her back on the ground next to a wooden fence. She was struggling and refusing to turn over on her stomach and place her hands behind her back as Dep. [REDACTED] was telling her to do.

[REDACTED] was standing about 2-3 feet back and leaning over to get his phone closer to the action. [REDACTED] was making me uncomfortable with his close proximity to our struggle with [REDACTED] I did not know if [REDACTED] was going to jump in to aid [REDACTED] or stay where he was and just video the incident with his phone.

Also, there was a large St. Bernard dog that was barking at Dep [REDACTED] back, and looked to be attempting to nip the back of Dep. [REDACTED] triceps as he struggled with [REDACTED] I told [REDACTED] to take hold of the dog and stay back. [REDACTED] was holding up his phone as if he was videoing the incident, and told me he had a right to stand where he was. [REDACTED] made no attempt to gain control of the dog or move backwards.

I told [REDACTED] again, this time forcefully, to stand back or I would also arrest him for interfering. I pointed to where I wanted [REDACTED] to stand several feet away, and ordered him to stand there. [REDACTED] only took a few steps slowly backwards and refused to move further. All this occurred as Dep [REDACTED] attempted to gain control of [REDACTED] hands and place her in handcuffs.

I saw [REDACTED] leg were kicking and flailing about so I turned by attention to assisting Dep. [REDACTED] I bent over and gained control of both of [REDACTED] legs. I also told her to turn over and place her hands behind her back, but she only screamed obscenities at [REDACTED] and me.

I then grabbed both her ankles and crossed her legs over to make her hips rotate, thus placing her face down on the ground. Dep [REDACTED] was then able to place [REDACTED] in handcuffs despite her continued struggles against him as I held her legs down by placing my knees on the back of her legs.

[REDACTED] was holding on tightly to a Bic type butane lighter that she refused to let go of.. I grabbed the lighter and forcefully pried it from her grasp. During the struggle, [REDACTED] shoes had come off and we offered to let her slip her shoes back on before putting her in Dep [REDACTED] patrol pickup. [REDACTED] only continued to curse at us, and so we escorted her to the patrol vehicle wearing only her socks on her feet.

As we were leaving the property, we saw [REDACTED] riding her bike with a friend on [REDACTED]. Dep

Narrative:

On June 11, 2019, I was on duty, in uniform, wearing a badge, and driving a marked Sheriff's patrol vehicle. At 1922 hours, I was dispatched to [REDACTED] in Bend to pick up a juvenile female child from her mother and give her to the custody of her father. This was a court-ordered child pick up. The juvenile I was authorized to pick up was [REDACTED] [REDACTED] more commonly goes by the name [REDACTED]. The court order was to remove [REDACTED] from the custody of her mother, [REDACTED], and into the custody of her father, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was dispatched as well.

Upon arrival to the property, there was a red, metal gate that was secured closed with a chain but no lock. I parked my vehicle in front of the residence and opened the gate and began walking up towards the main house. The main house was set back on the property approximately 250 feet. As I walked towards the house, I noticed there were multiple vehicles in various states of disrepair as well as a camp trailer in front of the house. It did not appear that anyone was living in the camp trailer.

Almost immediately as I walked onto the property, I was confronted by [REDACTED] who was yelling at me that if I did not have a search warrant that I needed to get off her property. I informed [REDACTED] that I had a court order and I was there to pick up [REDACTED]. At that point, [REDACTED] continued to yell even more and scream at me, repeating that if I didn't have a search warrant, that I had to "get the fuck off of her property!". [REDACTED] continued yelling "get the fuck off my property" over and over again.

As I made my way towards the house, [REDACTED] placed herself in front of me several times with her arms stretched out in a blocking fashion. I interpreted this to be an action to prevent me from walking towards the house. Each time [REDACTED] did this, I told her to step out of my way or she could be arrested for interfering with a police investigation. I was able each time to step around her and continue towards the house. Each time [REDACTED] attempted to block my path of travel, I reiterated that she could be arrested for interfering and stepped around her.

I made my way into the house and began my search for [REDACTED]. The house was a two-story A-frame type cabin. The house was very cluttered inside with furniture and clothes strewn about the furniture and floor. This made moving around the house difficult for me, however, I was able to make my way through. [REDACTED] was not on the first floor. I walked up the stairs to the second floor where I also did not locate [REDACTED]. There was a small loft from the second floor. [REDACTED] was not in the loft.

During my search of the home, [REDACTED] followed me everywhere and continued her screaming and yelling, telling me to "get the fuck out of her house" and that "I had no business to be there." I again informed her that I had a court order of which I had attempted to hand her prior to entering the house.

Once I determined that [REDACTED] was not in the house, I exited the residence. As I was leaving, [REDACTED] made statements like, "Yeah, go away". "You're not supposed to be here". "You need a search warrant." [REDACTED] also said she was going to call 9-1-1 because, in her words, I was being unreasonable and I was on her property illegally. I warned [REDACTED] several times not to call 9-1-1 because there was no emergency and that she could be arrested for Misuse of an Emergency Communications Service. My warning did not stop [REDACTED] and she called 9-1-1 twice while [REDACTED] and I were on scene.

I decided not to arrest [REDACTED] for interfering and misuse of 911 at that time because my main goal was to locate [REDACTED]. Since [REDACTED] was not on the property, I decided to conduct an area check around the neighborhood to see if she was nearby. While [REDACTED] and I were conducting an area check, dispatch notified me that [REDACTED] had called 9-1-1 two more times and one time on the non-emergency phone line. [REDACTED] was again warned by a Watch Commander not to dial 9-1-1 unless there was an actual emergency.

Neither [REDACTED] nor I located [REDACTED] in the area. Because [REDACTED] had ignored my warnings, I made the decision to arrest [REDACTED] for Misuse of 9-1-1 and interfering. I drove back to the property. The gate was closed again but not locked. I opened it and walked up to the house. [REDACTED] did not meet me in the driveway. She was behind the wood pallet fence in front of the house.

I opened the fence gate and told [REDACTED] that she was under arrest and I took control of [REDACTED] left arm. [REDACTED] spun to her right quickly which made me lose control of her arm. Because her back was turned to me, I was able to gain control of her right arm. Once I gained control of her right arm, I placed it behind her back.

At that point, [REDACTED] dropped to the ground on her knees and attempted to roll over to her left in an attempt to prevent me from handcuffing her. She placed her left arm underneath her body and attempted to kick herself away from me by thrusting her legs outward towards me. In order to gain control of [REDACTED], I knelt down and placed my right knee on the left side of her face, pinning it to the ground with my body weight.

[REDACTED] took control of [REDACTED] legs and I was able to pull her left arm out from underneath her stomach and handcuff it behind her back. Once [REDACTED] was handcuffed, I assisted her onto her feet and walked her back to my patrol vehicle. I searched [REDACTED] incident to arrest. I checked the handcuffs for proper fit and double-locked them and then placed [REDACTED] in the back of my patrol vehicle. Neither [REDACTED] nor I sustained any injuries.

As I was leaving the neighborhood, I saw two young female juveniles riding bicycles up [REDACTED] road towards me. One of the females appeared to resemble the description of [REDACTED] I had gotten from her father. Before I could inform dispatch that I'd possibly located [REDACTED], [REDACTED] screamed from the back of my patrol vehicle towards the female to run away screaming "[REDACTED] run!". This confirmed that the female that I'd believed to be [REDACTED] was, in fact, [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] jumped off her bike quickly and attempted to run away from my patrol vehicle. I stopped my patrol vehicle and stepped out. I told [REDACTED] to stop and she complied. [REDACTED] was standing on the north side of the road crying and screaming and seemed visibly upset. [REDACTED] told me several times that she was not going to come with me and that she just wanted to go home and stay with her mom. After several minutes of speaking with [REDACTED], I was able to calm her down. [REDACTED] willingly got into [REDACTED] patrol vehicle.

I contacted [REDACTED] by phone and informed him that we had located [REDACTED] and that my district partner would be dropping her off at his address, located at [REDACTED] in Bend.

I transported [REDACTED] to the Deschutes County Adult Jail in Bend. Upon arrival, it appeared that [REDACTED] was slumped over in the back of my patrol vehicle as if she were unconscious. Once inside the secured Sally port of the jail, I informed jail personnel that I had what appeared to be an unconscious female. Several corrections deputies came into the port area as well as the jail nurse and helped me remove [REDACTED] from my patrol vehicle.

We laid [REDACTED] on the floor. [REDACTED] was breathing and her pulse was strong according to the nurse. The nurse handed me a capsule of smelling salts which I activated by bending the capsule in half and placing it underneath [REDACTED] nose. [REDACTED] immediately came to [REDACTED] continued her tirade and rants that I was on her property illegally, that I didn't have a search warrant, and that I had punched her. [REDACTED] refused to stand up on her own. Because [REDACTED] was not complying, she was placed into a wheelchair to bring her into the booking area. During the entire time, [REDACTED] was verbally uncooperative with the corrections staff

I booked [REDACTED] in to the jail for three counts of Misuse of 9-1-1, one count of interfering with a police investigation, and one count of resisting arrest. I placed a copy of the child protective order into [REDACTED] property so she would have it when she was released.
